

" would like all firms to have a one page disclosure document about fees and risks associated in which the investor signs agreeing that they are aware of the fees and they understand they can't sell without penalty for 7 years"