Re: Proposed Registration Reform Project (RRP) Legislation

It has come to my attention there are movements toward additional regulations within the investment industry. I do not feel it is in my best interest to be profiled, in fact I believe it will adversely affect my investment options in the future.

I feel the additional intrusion into my choice of investments and determining only the largest institutions who certainly do not care nor have my best interests at heart should be able to determine what investment is suitable for me.

I do not feel I need to disclose any personal information including financial to anyone in order to determine my level of sophistication.

It's my money. Please allow me to choose with whom and where to invest.
