

To whom it may concern;

I am emailing both of you to register my personal disgust at this proposal.

Privacy is an utmost concern for all people and it baffles me why anyone needs this information, especially a salesperson.

The danger of fraud is bad enough without this. Our information is between us and those whom we share it with and it is up to us to protect it.

Kelvin Meilicke