

I have read and agree with the views expressed by the CNSX in regards to the proposed changes.....I think it would totally change the landscape of the way we do business in the junior marketplace, not to mention a detriment to sophisticated investors who we rely on for support and future growth. Don't really understand why they want to create more regulation when at times we feel over-regulated as an industry as a whole??....Are they trying to kill the small guy??

Scavo Resource Corp.